INFANTS' AND CHILDREN'S MUSLIN CAPS IN ALL THE NEW IDEAS AT THALHIMER BROTHERS, FIFTH AND BROAD STREETS.

315 EAST BROAD ST.

Nearly all things seem to be governed by the universal law termed experience. The dry-goods business is no exception to this rule, but proves it, and one of its teachings is that attractiveness depends not so much upon mammoth display and great variety as upon tasts in esiection. We claim that by careful study of the styles one can be prompt to recognize the wants of trade, and it is our pleasure to offer this season.

ONE OF THE CHOICEST LINES

CORSETS. CORSETS.

We have recently added several new lines of extra long-waisted French form Corsets, among them the following celebrated brands: R. & O., The Sonnette, P. D., Thomson's Glove-Fitting, Kabe, and the Aurora, in White, Black, and Drab, from 50c. npward. In order to pay greater attention to the new stock we are closing out the odd numbers of other styles at greatly reduced prices.

HOSIERY.

HOSIERY Fashion has decreed that Solid Black is no longer a monopoly color, but that other colors and fancy styles are entitled to a show. We invite an inspection of our new assortment of Black Boots and Fancy Tops at 12½, 25, and 40c; Richelleu Reis for Ladies and Children; Mode colors for Ladies and Gentlemen, and five special styles of Full Regular-Made Socks and liose at 12½c, per pair that are worth from 17 to 20c; Children's 1x1 Ribbed Double Knee, Fast Black, at 25c, for 5 to 7, and 30c for 7½ to 9.

MATTINGS Our styles of Mattings this season are so attractive, the prices so low, and our sales so much larger than usual, that we feel inclined to make a boast that we can sell Mattings to any purchaser who will look at our stock. We also have a lot of Rugs left over that we wish to close out at reduced prices.
